

LGA 2017 REGIONAL SEMINAR SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The Local Government Attorneys of Virginia, Inc. (LGA) is a group of public and private attorneys whose practice focuses on serving the public by providing premier legal representation to local and state governing bodies throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia. The LGA's aim is to provide members the highest quality continuing legal education through semi-annual three-day conferences and an annual one-day regional seminar, as well as other educational events held throughout the year.

The LGA Board of Directors invites students from accredited law schools to submit applications for scholarship attendance at its seminar. Chosen individuals may attend the educational programs without charge. Also, for law schools located more than 60 miles from the seminar site, lodging expense will be covered for one night, depending on need and availability of rooms. Travel expenses are the responsibility of the scholarship recipient. A list of the sessions will be posted on LGA's website under the conference tab.

The 2017 Regional Seminar will be held at the Craddock Terry Hotel & Event Center in Lynchburg on Friday, June 30th. In order to be considered for a scholarship award, please complete the application below and submit no later than Friday, May 26, 2017 to Susan Custer, LGA Administrative Director, at susan.custer@lgava.org, or fax to 804-371-0234, or mail to LGA, 11 South 12th Street, Suite 225, Richmond, Virginia, 23219.
